Sir,

I have the honour to bring to your kind notice that the Hunsur Works were represented in the Hunsur Town Municipal Council by Mr. K M Madapa, our Superintendent, who had been nominated by the Mysore Government for the period now ending

The new Council will assemble on 1 10 1944 and I understand that the Government will nominate three Councillors

I suggest that you will consider to nominate not only our Superintendent, Mr. K M Madapa, but also the Works Assistant - Superintendent, Mr. I M Mandappa, who is very able and takes great interest in modernisation and development of our Works, and as per my opinion, he would be of good use in the Hunsur Municipal Council, as the tendency of the Hunsur Town is to develop on modern lines
